Guidance Notes for filling in the application form

The following advice is designed to help you complete the application form as effectively as possible. Although we ask for education and training details, we give more weight to experience.

- The Job Description and Person Specification

Read and thoroughly analyse the job description

Ask yourself why you are interested in the job.

Would it be a job you would enjoy and find satisfying? Would it offer you more responsibility than you have at present? Why?

In the person specification you will find listed the skills, knowledge, experience and qualifications required.

- Think about your Experience

Have you got the necessary skills, knowledge and experience?

Remember to take into account any employment you have had, including holiday or weekend jobs

Take into account any relevant experience you have acquired outside work, such as community/voluntary/leisure activities/ work around the household etc.

Stress all the experience that is relevant to this post.

Explaining your present and previous jobs and experience to someone else may help to uncover 'hidden' skills and talents etc. which you take for granted

- The Application Procedure

Ensure the application is filled in clearly in black ink.

All applications must be made on the enclosed form.

CV's will not be accepted

The shortlisting process will use the person specification as the basis of selection. Therefore ensure that all the points on the person specification are addressed.

- The Interview Procedure

Manchester People First (MPF) strives to be an equal opportunities employer.

The interview will be split into three stages:

1. The first stage will be a short computer test comprising of basic word processing and a spreadsheet exercise (10 minutes)
2. The second stage will be a short informal sit down chat with the members. (10 minutes)
3. The final stage of the process will be a set of questions, and will be based on the person specification. Supplementary questions may be asked upon candidate's response, or to clarify points. It will be ensured that no discriminatory questions are asked.

At the conclusion of the interviews, candidates will have the opportunity to ask questions. This will not form part of the selection procedure.

Reasons for rejecting candidates will be recorded and made available for candidates on request.
